SECOND HAND UNIFORMS

Please read thoroughly:

1. All items must be in good condition and meet the Fawkner Netball Club uniform policy. Uniforms that have holes, tears, fading, underarm stains or offensive odours will not be accepted. Items with slight imperfections, for example, paint mark other slight stains, may be accepted.
2. The Second Hand Uniform Coordinators reserve the right to assess each item and refuse items offered for sale. All decisions made regarding uniform submissions are final.
3. All items must be cleaned and in a suitable condition for re-sale.
4. All name labels are to be removed and written names marked out.
5. Sport caps and socks cannot be accepted for sale due to health regulations.
6. Items that are not suitable for resale, including items that have become obsolete, will be disposed of in a suitable manner by FNC Committee
7. Items for sale are accepted all year round and can be dropped off when the Uniform Shop is open at training
8. Item sale price will vary according to the condition of the item and may be up to 50% of the new price. This price is not negotiable.
9. Items are accepted for resale on consignment (by FNC) or by donation.
10. If consignment is the preferred option: Proceeds will be credited to your account once your returned uniform has been purchased. Bank Account details are to be completed on the form below.
11. It is the seller's responsibility to notify Fawkner Netball Club of any changes to contact or banking details.
12. A description of sold items will be provided.
13. There is no time limit on holding of Second-Hand Uniforms.
14. Whilst all care will be taken by members of the Fawkner Netball Club and its volunteers, no responsibility is accepted for the loss, damage or theft of second-hand uniforms.
